FAQ

Q: Can each side have a design?

A: Yes. There are four sides to each card and all can be designed: front, inside front, inside back, and back.

Q: How do I know which way to fold my cards?

A: We crease folded cards based on what works best for each design. The process we use when creasing the card ensures you can fold them in whichever way you like best.

Q: Do I need extra postage?

A: Non-machinable sizes such as 5x5 and oversized pieces such as 5.25x8 and 5.25x8 Wide Format can require extra postage due to size and weight.

FAQ

Q: What elements of the card will be foil pressed?

A: All elements featured in the provided templates will be foil pressed.

Q: Can I send in my own designs for Foil Pressed Cards?

A: Unfortunately, there are no custom options for Foil Pressed Cards at this time. You may only select from the available template options.

Q: Can I print on both sides of the cards?

A: Yes, Foil Pressed Cards are double-sided. One side features the foil pressed design and the other is available for customization. Please note: There will be a minor imprint on the back of the foil pressed design due to paper debossing. This may be slightly visible depending on design elements.

FAQ

Q: Am I able to order stamping on the covers?

A: Foil stamping is not available. However, you can order Accordion Minis with a custom cover.

Q: What is the minimum order requirement?

A: You must order in sets of three, with the minimum requirement of one set. You can have three separate designs for both the interiors and covers.

Q: What is the difference between a Pano and a panel?

A: A Pano would be one image file that spans the entire side. A panel would be one individual file that fits each image node available on each side.

Q: How many image nodes are on each side?

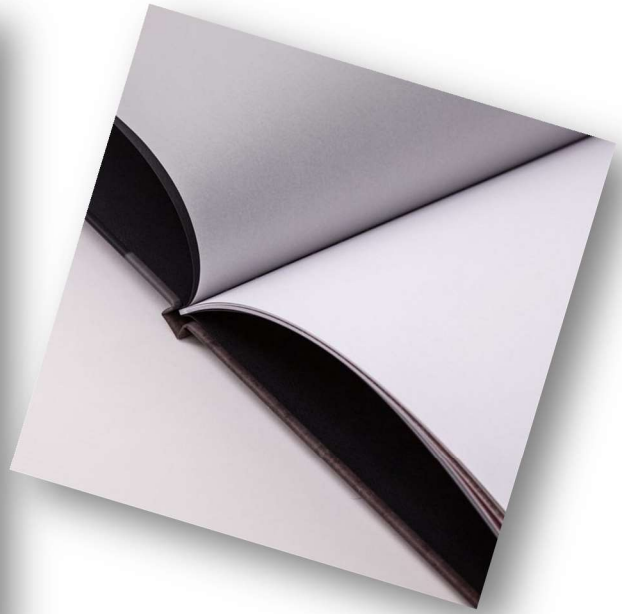

A: On the 2.5x3.5, there are six image nodes available on both sides. On the 3x3, there are six image nodes on side one and four image nodes on side two.

Q: Is there a price difference between paper types?

A: No, paper types are all the same. If choosing gloss or UV coating, there is an additional charge.

Q: Can I mix cover options in a single order with 3 unique designs?

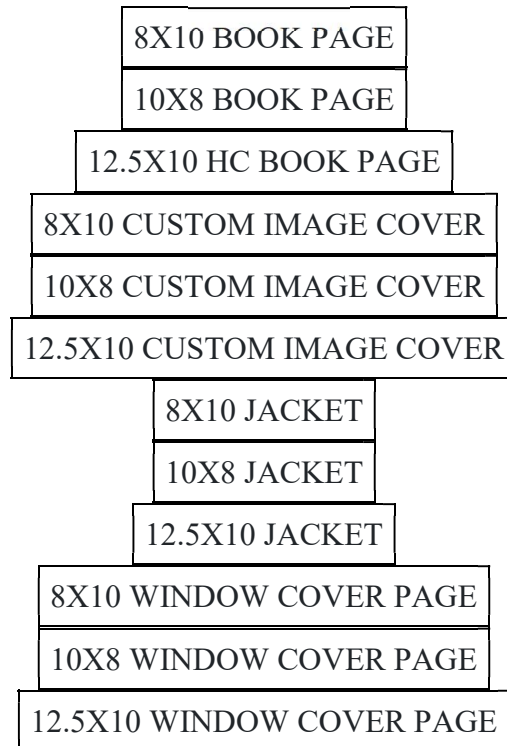

A: No, the same type of cover will be applied to all 3 accordion minis, whether it's the custom cover type or Euro Hyde/Art Cloth type.

FAQ

Q: How are Hard Cover Press Books different from Lay Flat Press Books?

A: Hard Cover Press Books and Lay Flat Press Books are different in a number of ways – different cover options, different paper types, and a different binding process. Named for how they lay when open, Lay Flat Press Books actually lay flat so images aren't distorted by the hinge of the book, while Hard Cover Press Books are bound as a typical book would be. Lay Flat Books are our high end press book and have bonded leather covers, while our Hard Cover Press Book covers are made of euro Hyde. Finally, Lay Flat paper is the thickest hinged paper in the industry, including both pearl and smooth. Hard Cover Press Book paper types include matte, semi-gloss, and linen and are thinner when compared to the Lay Flat pages.

Q: Can I order a Pano spread?

A: Due to the way this book is put together, Pano spreads are not recommended.

Q: What is the weight of the paper?

A: Semi-Gloss - This paper offers a high quality, extremely smooth semi-gloss surface providing for excellent contrast color reproduction. Its weight is 100# Text/148 gsm. It contains 10% recycled content.

A: Matte - This acid free paper is chosen by designers for its archival quality and timeless appeal. Its soft, smooth surface provides for velvety solids and natural-looking prints. Its weight is 100# Text, and it contains 30% recycled content.

A: Fine Art Linen - This paper has a subtle, yet traditional and luxurious linen pattern. This fine linen pattern presents exceptional print clarity and accepts delicate type well. Its weight is 80# Cover/216 gsm. It contains 50% recycled content.

Q: Do your Hard Cover Books start with a single page on the right or with a Pano image?

A: Your first page is a single image on the right. If you are looking for an album product that starts with a Pano image please refer to the Signature Album for all of your current and future album needs.

FAQ

Q: Are there discounts for multiple books ordered at the same time?

A: There are no discounts for multiple quantities in a Soft Cover Book order.

Q: Can I get the cover paper types on the interior of the book?

A: No, only matte and semi-gloss papers are available for the interior pages.

Q: What is the weight of the Cover papers?

A: Smooth Cover - This smooth paper offers an excellent white allowing for vibrant color rendition. Its weight is 100# Cover/270 gsm. It contains no recycled content; however, it is FSC certified.
